

From archived NWSF web site... the flier for the cancelled event

Northwest Social Forum

Another World Is Possible...

Modeled on the World Social Forums (the grassroots response to the annual World Economic Forums), the Northwest Social Forum will bring together activists working on issues of social justice, economic justice, and environmental sustainability throughout the region. Activists in Alaska, British Columbia, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington, and the Yukon will come together to share their work, strategize, and offer one another inspiration and support. We encourage everyone interested in social, economic, environmental, and global justice to help organize and attend the NWSF.

October 14 – October 17, 2004 (www.nwsocialforum.org)

At Seattle Center and other venues in Seattle

NWSF THEMES: Globalization, Economic Justice, & New Economic Models; Protecting the Public Good; Peace, Justice, & Militarism; Environment & Environmental Justice; Indigenous Wisdom; Human Rights, Racial Justice, Gender Justice; Indigenous & Immigrant Rights; Music Art, & Culture

Oct. 14 Kickoff event (venue TBA):

International Forum on Globalization (www.ifg.org)

Panel speakers include: Maude Barlow, Walden Bello, John Cavanagh, Tony Clarke, Martin Khor, David Korten, Jerry Mander, Lori Wallach, Vicky Tauli Corpuz & others.

To learn more about the history of the Social Forums, sign up for working groups or connect with others, see:

www.nwsocialforum.org

Contact us:

info@nwsocialforum.org

206.448.7348, Ext. 342

(Office is hosted by SEIU local 6)

How can I participate?

- Create a workshop
- Host visitors from afar
- Launch NWSF preliminary events
- Get your favorite organizations involved
- Sponsor individual attendees
- Volunteer on a committee
- Plan to attend
- Add NWSF link to your websites

What are you ideas? We want to hear from you!

We do not want fees to stop anyone from attending the NWSF. You can volunteer in exchange for free entrance, and we have established a Solidarity Fund to ensure low-income activists are able to participate.